From the Dean's Office of the School of Philosophy:

In order to enter teaching rooms, laboratories, libraries, multimedia rooms and all spaces of the School of Philosophy, you have to meet one of the following conditions:

1. You have to have been fully vaccinated against Covid-19 at least 14 days before visiting the building of the School of Philosophy
2. For those who have already contracted the virus, you have to have received one jab of the vaccine at least 14 days before visiting the building
3. For those who have already contracted the virus, you can visit the building only after at least twenty but no more than 180 days have passed since you fell ill.
4. You have to display two negative (PCR or lateral flow) test results, dated up to 48 hours before Tuesday and Friday respectively.

It is mandatory to wear masks (simple surgical or suitable masks made of other materials): 1) in all teaching rooms, 2) in all other indoor spaces of the School, and 3) in all crowded outdoor spaces of the School.